To Whom It May Concern:

On March 9, 2010, the Bath County Board of Supervisors voted unanimously to adopt an ordinance for the regulation of alarm systems in Bath County. The ordinance requires that every individual, business, or organization which has installed or seeks to install an alarm system in Bath County is required to obtain a permit to operate the system. The permit shall identify all necessary information regarding the premises, location, contact names, telephone numbers, physical address, directions, and other information needed by emergency personnel in order to carry out their respective duties.

Please find enclosed a copy of the Bath County ordinance pertaining to regulation of alarm systems and a Bath County alarm permit form. The form shall be completed and returned to Bath County Sheriff's Office within 30 days of receipt of this letter. There is not a fee for the alarm permit registration.

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (540) 839-2375.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Plecker
Bath County Sheriff
